DISCUSSION

Alderman Bolton

Stated he believed he had been told the state had set the tax rate for the City of Nashua. Remarked he received a call from a constituent who indicated she had contacted the Assessor's and Tax Offices and was told it had not been set or if it had been set it couldn't be made public. He asked the Mayor to comment.

Mayor Lozeau

Responded she is not aware of anyone calling in and being told that information could not be made public. The tax rate was set last Thursday afternoon. The tax rate is set at $19.82. She remarked that information has been sent out in a press release and to the Board of Aldermen. She believed the tax bills would be going out some time next week, which is on track with what was done last year.
